

VOTE ELLA
FOR CCB SENIOR CO-PRESIDENT!

About Me:

Hi! My name is Ella Joshi, and I am beyond excited to be running for Senior Co-President! I'm from Easton, Maryland and I study Political Science on the International track. I've been on Class Board since our first year and it has been such an incredible part of my Brown experience. I love CCB with all of heart and I cannot wait to keep serving the Class of 2021!

Qualifications:

In our first year, I was your Vice President, and during our sophomore year and junior fall (before I went abroad) I was your Community Outreach Officer. In addition to these roles, I have also served on CCB's Diversity and Inclusion Committee and served as the 18-19 Ombudsperson. On the Diversity and Inclusion Committee, my fellow committee members and I worked to ensure that all of our events are as inclusive and accessible as possible while also working to improve CCB's internal culture.

While on CCB I have planned, organized, and staffed numerous events from ADOCH to Senior Week. For example, last year I was a co-chair for planning CCB's annual Gala. Organizing that event was the greatest challenge of my CCB career, but it was also one of my favorite things I've ever done on Class Board.

Goals:

Accessibility: Ensuring all of our events are physically and financially accessible is a high priority. I plan on working to make Senior Week more financially accessible and to provide more effective financial aid plans.

Collaboration: I would love to work closer together with other Brown organizations, like cultural groups, identity centers, and performance groups, to plan exciting and diverse events for our class as well as for the whole student body.
